

Time of Anxiety

Look to anxiety,
today scratching,
guiding fundamentals
gasp for new growth.

View life's wheels -
infrastructure, education, untouched poor, lawbreakers.
How do we go forth?

A flag pin for the red states of our republic slides with doubt,
rubbing the hollow
child's body.

Where is the country's mind?
Seeking a glowing
force of safety and place, community braised with heat?

Today's anxiety is erased by a change
of ideas for everyone, to volunteer for unanswered heartbreaks equaling a unity of life for all.
